Dear Parents and Carers

On Tuesday, the children all enjoyed spending time in their classes. The year 6's enjoyed their day at the Bishop Heber High School and all returned with big smiles!

The year 5's were fabulous buddies to the new children joining our school and helped to make their first day very special.

Chester Cathedral

The year 6 children thoroughly enjoyed the leavers' service at Chester Cathedral yesterday; it was a beautiful service focusing on hope and aspirations.

"Today we think about HOPE and ASPIRATION... the hope that God will be with us in the future, and the strong desire that He will guide us in all we do."

A special thank you to Mrs Kidd, Archie and Tom's mum, for inviting us for lunch at her law firm in Chester. Lunch was delicious, the views were amazing and it really made the day extra special. Thank you.

BHHS Y3/4 Cricket Tournament

Great teamwork from our Y3/4 cricket team who competed in Bishop Heber's tournament at Tattenhall Cricket Club yesterday.

Bishop Heber High School- Arts Celebration Evening

We enjoyed exhibiting our British Values artwork as part of the Bishop Heber High School's art celebration evening on Wednesday. All children contributed to our display which represented British Values using a range of recyclable materials.

It was a very inspiring evening listening to the wonderful musicians at the high school and looking at their incredible artwork.

Prayer of the week- Harriet & Izaak (Head Boy and Girl)

Dear Lord,
Thank you for special times spent together,
May we keep our memories close and our friends even closer.

Let us embrace new experiences whilst always showing kindness and love.
Please help us make the most of our last couple of days together.
Amen

Have a lovely weekend.

Yours sincerely
