Dear Parents and Carers

Covid-19 Update

There have been further cases confirmed in the Kestrels, Robins and House Martins classes this week, including two members of staff, and we are continuing to work with Public Health to reduce the spread of infection.

We will continue to implement our risk assessment until Friday 18th February, and may we ask that you respect the following safety measures we have in place:

- Face masks to be worn on the yard at drop off and collection and when inside the building.
- Please follow the one-way system.
- Please continue to follow Public Health advice and do daily lateral flow tests when identified as a close contact. (Kestrels- until Friday 18th February & House Martins- Tuesday 15th February & Robins- Friday 18th February)

We will review our risk assessment over half term and inform you of any changes in line with guidance from Public Health and the Department of Education.

Thank you for your continued support.

Swimming

Sorry we had to cancel swimming for the House Martins this week. We are in discussions with the pool to see if the missed session can be re-arranged. We will be in touch as soon as possible.

Don't judge a t-shirt by its cover!

To celebrate World Book Day on Thursday 3 March, the TSA would like to give you a plain white t-shirt to decorate.

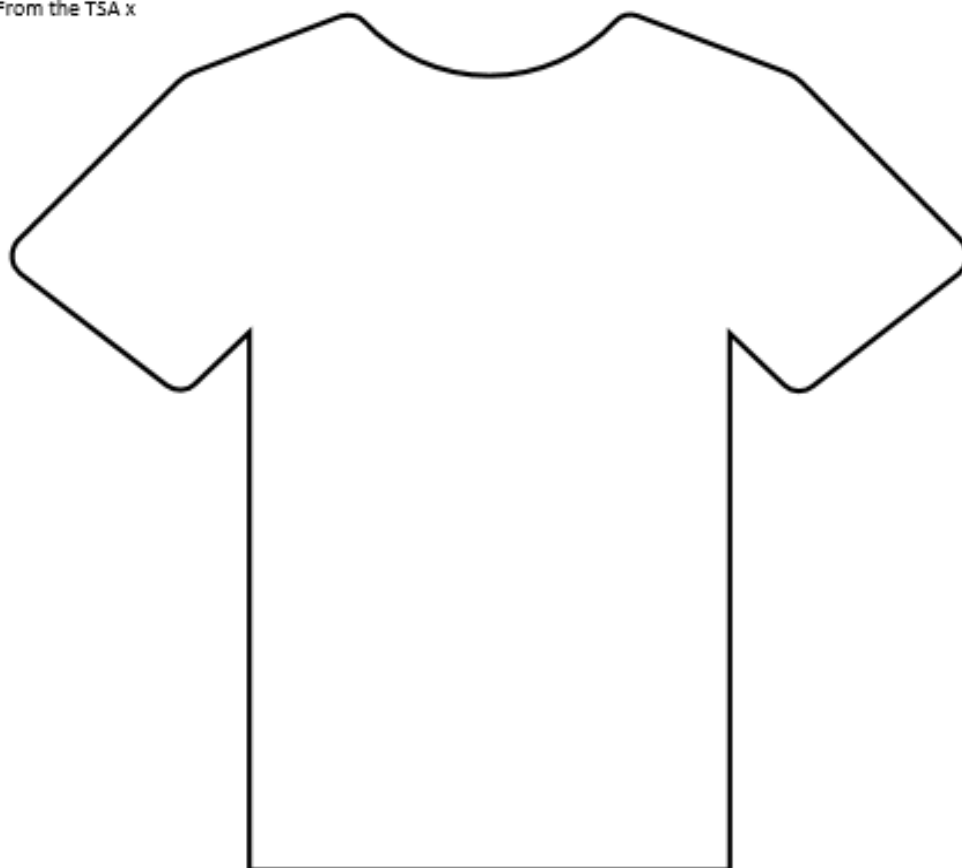

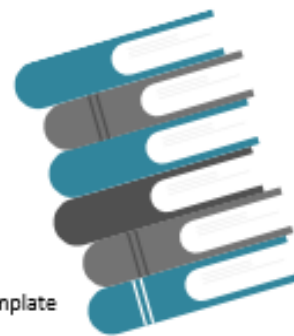

In exchange, all we ask is that you let your imaginations run wild, to design and embellish your very own t-shirt in a style that reflects your favourite book.

T-shirts will be handed out before half term, so that you can work on your creations over the holiday, as a mini project, and to get you started here is a template to help cultivate your ideas.

Let your inner designer out, let your artistic flair flow, or perhaps spend time with a friend or family member having some creative fun.

Just remember, this is your t-shirt and it's your interpretation, so go crazy and don't forget to wear it to school on Thursday 3 March.
