  - g) headteacher
(except at any time when (s)he has given written notice to the governing body of the school that (s)he chooses not to govern).
5. Total number of governors: 11 (except at any time when the headteacher has given notice as above that (s)he chooses not to be governor, when the total number of governors will be 10).
6. One co-opted governor will be a governor for whose appointment nominations are to be sought from Tilston Parish Council.
7. The foundation governor, other than the ex-officio foundation governor, shall be appointed by the Chester Diocesan Board of Education having consulted with the Parochial Church Council of Tilston St. Mary.
8. The holder of the following office shall be a foundation governor ex-officio: The principal officiating minister is the Rector (or Team Rector in the case of a team ministry) or Vicar or priest in charge of the parish or the curate in charge if the school is in a conventional district.

The Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry within which the school is situated shall appoint a foundation governor to act in the place of the ex officio foundation governor whose governorship derives from the office named above, in the event that that ex officio foundation governor is unable or unwilling to act as a foundation governor, or there is a vacancy in the office by virtue of which his governorship exists.

9. The ethos of the school

Recognising its historic foundation, the school will preserve and develop its religious character in accordance with the Church of England and in partnership with the Church at parish and diocesan level.

The school aims to serve its community by providing an education of the highest quality within the context of Christian belief and practice. It encourages an understanding of the meaning and significance of faith, and promotes Christian value through the experience it offers to all its pupils.
